"Something Shocking were around the psycho scene in the late eighties. I remember thinking that it was about time I had a female singer on my Fury label. Vanessa Pipe was the lead vocal with the band and her influences were bands like the Rezillos. She got together with Pete who was the drummer, Emma Goss was the double bass player and Mike Pannell was on lead guitar. They played on one of my Big Rumble psycho weekends and went down well with the international audience. The name of the band and the title are a "play" on words (shocking pink) and the word something.

I remember this guy Tiernan who painted the LP cover and it is a masterpiece of psychobilly!! Mike the guitarist played guitar for Demented Are Go for a while. He is a talented player. Emma played bass for many bands around the late eighties. She was in demand a lot because of her playing and it was unique to have a female psycho bass player. Vanessa was a great song writer and it shows in her live performance on this album. The album has only been available on vinyl until now! Thanks to Vampirette Music."
