Re-Release of the very successful selling first album of The Deltas. This album also was the very first record release of the British label Nervous Records.

The release comes up in time to the 25th anniversary of The Deltas and of course Nervous Records.

"Following the success of their first single 'Heart Attack'/'Spellbound' we at Nervous are very proud to present The Deltas' first album. We believe that this is not only one of the wildest albums of all time but that it will stand alongside such classics as Gene Vincent's second album as a classic of its type.

If you've never seen The Deltas live there you must make a point of doing so real soon, and if you have seen them live then you'll know that it really is impossible to capture their sheer raw energy without a live audience, and it is for this reason that we have included a live track here. Also you'll find an alternative version of 'Heart Attack'.

It can't be long now before the world wakes up to the amazing talent of The Deltas - wilder than The Polecats - crazier than The Meteors - this is the ultimate insane hot bopz - The Deltas.

I wrote the above for the album sleeve in 1981. The Deltas still do the occasional gig, and they are still a barrel of fun. Maybe Captain Marvel's a little chubbier, Bongo has less hair but Little John's is still long and black (so I'm told!), but it has been fifteen years I still believe that you'll go a long way to find a record with such energy and passion on it as this one, and I'm still proud of it. Inside this booklet we've included some pictures of the boys from 1981."
